Congratulations to CMSI Graduate Students Melissa Zambour Ward and Brady O'Donnell for being selected for the UC Carbon Slam! The event welcomed UC students from all 10 campuses to present their climate research with a chance to win cash prizes. Read more on the Carbon Slam website.

CMSI, is working with CWS (the Center for Watershed Sciences), and TERC (the Tahoe Environmental Research Center) to organize a Chancellor's event at the Exploratorium in San Francisco in June. One of the demonstrations will be a global map of CMSI/BML, TERC, and CWS activities generated through a GIS map that CWS will assemble. CMSI needs your help in collecting your information (research groups, project titles, and locations) so that global CMSI related activities can be placed on the map. Please submit responses to the CWS google form before May 31st for each project you would like to see featured. In addition, UC Davis students will be featured in a "where are they now?" display. Former graduate students can fill out the google form here.
